

June 29, 1983

Mrs. Hostetter

Funeral services for Genevieve E. Hostetter, 56, Groton, were held Saturday, June 25, at 2 p.m., at the First Assembly of God Church in Aberdeen, with the Rev. David L. Nelson officiating. Burial followed at the Groton Union Cemetery in Groton.

Mrs. Hostetter died Wednesday, June 22, at St. Luke's Hospital in Aberdeen.

The organist at the service was Beth Osland. The soloist was Roger Griep. The ushers were Marvin Nies and Jerry Miles. Pallbearers were Ralph Berreth, Harry Berreth, Al Beags, all of Aberdeen; Dave Murray, Stratford; Edward Plummer and Howard Plummer, both of Columbia.

Genevieve Eileen Murray was born on September 17, 1926, at Wetonka to Wesley and Laura Grover Murray. She went to rural school at Wetonka and graduated from high school at Westport in 1944. She worked at Hub City Iron in Aberdeen during the war and then taught rural school for a year. She was married to Enos (Bill) Hostetter on December 7, 1949, at Columbia. They made their home east of Houghton until 1972, when they moved to a farm southwest of Groton, where they have resided since. In recent years she was employed as a cook until August, 1982, when due to illness she could no longer work.

She was a member of the First Assembly of God Church in Aberdeen.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Hostetter of Groton; two sons, Kenneth Hostetter, Aberdeen; Michael Hostetter, Groton; five daughters, Mrs. John (June) Tuthill of Aberdeen; Mrs. Vince (Julie) Lickfelt, Groton; Mrs. Jeff (Jane) Bengs of Tucson, Ariz.; Shirley Hostetter, Aberdeen; and Jean Hostetter, Groton; three brothers, Eugene Murray, Aberdeen; Wesley Murray, Prairie Grove, Ark.; and Charles Murray of Mina; two sisters, Mrs. Marvin (Winifred) Glaser, Fargo, N.D.; and Mrs. Don (Wanda) Bohling of Cudahy, Wis.; and six grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one sister, one infant brother, one infant son and one infant daughter.